SUMMARY

Psychology is about understanding the relationship between mental processes, behaviour and how they shape individuals and the society at large. The Diploma in Psychology offered in IJN College provides graduates a solid foundation to join a variety of exciting fields such as human resources, marketing and advertising, and work at therapy centers, hospitals and educational institutions. Graduates can pursue postgraduate studies in their area of interest to become practitioners in the field.

Programme objectives:

- To produce graduates with strong fundamental understanding of the theories in psychology
- To engage in a scientific manner by integrating psychological theories to solve problems
- To create graduates with better sensitivity and understanding of society's behaviour and thought processes
